

Upper Hurstville

Residents Association and Security District

UHRA RESIDENT DATA SHEET

The Upper Hurstville Resident's Association (UHRA) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, volunteer managed association and is funded by annual membership dues of $25 per parcel, per calendar year. The purpose of the association is to:

- Promote the neighborhood's safe, quiet, family friendly ambiance
- Facilitate good relations with commercial interests
- Promote historic preservation and improve the esthetic maintenance of the neighborhood
- Promote neighborliness and support civic activities
- Be an instrument of political liaison in representing the views and interest of its members to elected officials, city services, police, media, commercial and business entities

If you have not paid your 2019 dues, please go to www.upperhurstville.com and click "Pay Now." If you need to check the status of your dues, please click "Did I Pay My Dues?" If you prefer to pay via check, please send this completed form with your $25 check to
