Residents Association and Security District

UHRA Membership Dues / Data Sheet INVOICE $25

The Upper Hurstville Resident's Association (UHRA) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, volunteer managed association and is funded by annual membership dues of $25 per parcel, per calendar year. The purpose of the association is to:

- Promote the neighborhood's safe, quiet, family friendly ambiance
- Facilitate good relations with commercial interests
- Promote historic preservation and improve the esthetic maintenance of the neighborhood
- Promote neighborliness and support civic activities
- Be an instrument of political liaison in representing the views and interest of its members to elected officials, city services, police, media, commercial and business entities

If you have not paid the current year's dues, please go to www.upperhurstville.com and click "Pay Now" to pay via PayPal. To check the status of your dues, click "Did I Pay My Dues?" If you prefer to pay via check, send this completed form with a check or money order for $25 to:
