

New Orleans Police Department

REPEAT THEFT BOLO

Unknown Suspects

GIST: In the last week, the two above pictured subjects have perpetrated at least (4) separate package thefts from the Uptown area. Both subjects are often seen on a bicycle, with one of the two acting as a lookout while the other steals the package. Both parties have been seen utilizing a yellow bicycle (pictured above with the male) that has a rack on the back, as well as other bicycles. The female carries a large duffel bag. Both subjects appear to be between 30-50 years of age. The female is short to medium height and often wears the same blue t-shirt and tight shorts. The male is dark complected, bald, and appears to be tall with a muscular build. If you see these subjects, please detain them and contact 2nd district DIU.

If you have any information regarding the identification of this subject, please contact 2nd DIU.

